FOREWARD

The Senior Class is presenting the edition of the High School Year book, CRIGO.

We hope you will find in it remembrances of our playtime and class work throughout our school year. As you turn the pages in this year book may this help you to recall your happy memories of the good old days at Haskins High.

The Senior Class Takes pleasure in expressing our appreciation to all those successful.

SCHOOL SONG

Haskins Forever

Haskins forever, we will sing to you,
We'll defend our standard in whate'er we do.
Hail, hail, the gang's all here.
Round our colors old;
We'll stick together for the Crimson and Gold.

Haskins forever, we will sing to thee,
Faithful, proud, and loyal may we ever be.
Hail, hail, the gang's all here,
Round our colors old;
We'll stick together for the Crimson and Gold.

CLASSWILLS

We, the class of 1946, do regretfully accept this year as the sorrowful end of our carefree days at Haskins High School. It is questionable as to whether our minds and our bodies are sound, but just the same, we declare this to be our last will and testament.

We dispose of the properties of the Senior Class as follows:

To the Junior Class, we leave our good behavior.

To the Faculty we leave a strait jacket for use on the underclassmen, who follow in our footsteps.

Beverly Armitage leaves her artistic abilities to Marilyn Asmus and Garold Garrett.

Eileen Delker leaves her love for one man only to Patricia Neal.

Richard Eckel wills his love for coon hunting to Jack Ryder.

Evelyn Michaelis regretfully leaves her carefree ways to Donna and Verna Gibbs.

Mary Ellen Norvell wills her sense of humor to Franklyn Hummel.

Norman Robertson leaves his romantic achievements to Brice Thornton and Robert Ennis.

Phyllis Ryder leaves her adventurous spirit to Grayce Phillips.

Morris Wenig wills his sleeping in the fourth period to Don Ziss.

Lenore Ziss leaves her slenderness to Walter Agler.

We won't leave any requests as to the process of conducting our funeral for we expect to out live the underclassmen by at least five years.

It was a rainy, gray afternoon in early May, one of those dull, gray days so common in the spring of the year. Not seeming to find anything to do which quite struck my fancy, I finally struck onto the notion that, at long last, I had the chance I had been waiting for to clean up the attic. The more I thought of it the more I liked the idea, so up the stairs I went. It was terribly dark in the attic, as no light was coming in from outside, and in groping to find the light, I stumbled over something stuck straight in my path. Immediately upon gaining the light switch I turned to see what had barked my shin, and found a strange wooden box blocking my retreat. While trying to open it, all kinds of things came into mind. But, at last the lid came off, and to my surprise there lay, nothing but an empty box, aside from the dusty old magazine of 15 or 20 years back, packed into the bottom of it. I reached in after the magazine and carefully started to lift the cover, when suddenly the radiant smile of Mary Ellen Norvell, on the face on the cover dazzled me. I gazed at her for a moment, and then eagerly dove into the magazine, in hopes of discovering the name of the gorgeous model. This page happened to be the table of contents. Scanning the table for something that would throw a little light on the name I was seeking, my eyes lit almost immediately upon the name in bold-faced type, pretty well toward the top of the list. "The Girl He Left Behind", it said, "A human interest story by the Editor Miss Clarissa Climbwell." Miss Clarissa Climbwell is in real life the world-famous Mrs. H.P. Clinker, wife of Admiral Clinker, whom everyone heard so much about during the last year. This magazine is a kind of hobby for her, and was published by her before her marriage, under her maiden name, Lenore Ziss. Mr. and Mrs. Clinker own a magnificent Long Island estate, but spend most of their time, in cruising around the world.

Well, well, fancy that! But now for a little more digging. Now, this is really my idea of a wedding. The footing says the bride is the former Miss Mary Robertson, daughter of the Rev. Norman J. Robertson, who performed the ceremony. It goes on to say that Rev. Robertson has served in his parish for seventeen years, and although he is now getting along in years, almost any warm sunny afternoon he can be seen driving his tiny gray flivver through Central Park.

Referring once again to my contents, the next item that struck my eye was headed: "HOTSHOT'S IDEAL OF THE WEEK". It sounded interesting, and when I began to read it proved even more so. At the very top was a picture of a couple, old and bewrinkled, standing before the door of their modest home. The inscription beneath read: "This week, Hotshot's prize of $10.00 for the Ideal of the Week goes to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wenig as having the most nearly perfect farm in this state. Mr. Wenig and his wife, the former Evelyn Michaelis, are very happy in their little home, and almost any evening they may be found at home. It is said that they have turned down offers for as much as $20,000 for their farm.

The runner-up of this title, it says here, and the proud winner of five shiny silver dollars, is a bonny lass by the name of Eileen Delker, who is the manageress of a home for Spinster Girls. (The name of this home is the Delker Domain for Dimpled Dowagers.) The home publishes its own magazine, "The Broken Hearts' Gazette", to which material may be sent, or advice be obtained by addressing all mail to Miss Delker.

Let's see here's a little article that might be good reading. It's headed, "Farm Forum". It says here that none other than our own Secretary of Agriculture, Richard Eckel by name, will speak over the "Farm Forum", broadcast tonight at 7:30. Beneath the picture it says that "Shorty" Eckel is quite famous for that friendly smile, which he showers freely on all that are around him.

Well, to go on, the next article is called "Topper Teen Timers", and it really is a spread. It features a full-page picture of "Teen Timer Show of 1950", and the limelight is centered upon Miss Beverly Armitage, producer and director. Miss Armitage, although she is still whole-heart and fancy free, writes a very remarkable column in the daily paper, entitled "The Happy Home".

Aw gee, I'm through the book and I was just getting really interested. Here's the last page, though. Just look at those old-fashioned horn-rimmed spectacles! Just who is this distinguished looking creature? Up here at the top it says that, since this is Educational Week all over the country, the Hot-shot has chosen as the typical educational leader Miss Phyllis Ryder, Latin teacher at Ohio State University. Miss Ryder says that she is happiest when she can just be by herself, in front of an open fireplace, with a good book and read away quietly to her hearts content.

Well, so ends the book. I really had found that magazine worth the time it took, and I had solved the mystery of my cover girl, and yet----it still seemed a little strange. All these people are famed in their own line, every one excels in some certain field, and they all seem to come from practically the same locality. Although I can't quite fix them in my mind, even the town sounds familiar. Perrysburg, Bowling Green, Haskins,-----Haskins! Yes, of course. How could I have ever forgotten? Haskins is our old home-town and Haskins Hi was our Alma Mater. These distinguished people were the class of '46, the kids who worried with us over Government, scrapped with us over typewriters, joined us in all our fun, and even helped us drive the Faculty to a nervous breakdown! Ah yes, those were the good old days, as any of our teachers will tell you (if they have by this time sufficiently recovered). But those days, the good times we had then, are now just dear memories.

Yes, this was all written in fun, but there is more to it than that. Now, as you face the future, as your Hi School days are drawing to a close, we, the Junior Class, join with the Faculty in bidding you a fond farewell, and extending to you our heartiest wishes for much success from now on.

HHS

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1934, eleven pupils entered the first grade under the supervision of Miss Carr. These included the following: Ward Wenig, Morris Dobbelaire, Eldon Hedges, Marvin Mutchler, Lenore Ziss, Morris Wenig, Phyllis Ryder, Norman Robertson, Mary Ellen Norvell, Beverly Armitage, and Irma Hartman. At the end of the first semester Evelyn Michaelis, Donna and Verna Gibbs entered our class.

When we began the second grade with Miss Newlove as our teacher, we left Donna and Verna Gibbs behind.

In the third grade we entered Miss Asmus's room with Laurel Duty, Billy Thomas, Rose Ann Taylor, Rudolph Puppos, and Charles Bancroft as new members. Ward Wenig, Irma Hartman, and Morris Dobbelaire withdrew.

Paul Dauster began the fourth grade with us, but Rose Ann Taylor, Rudolph Puppos, Charles Bancroft, and Eldon Hedges withdrew.

Rachel Browning joined us as we went in the fifth grade with Mrs. Wolfe as our teacher.

Ervin Foor and William Hayden entered the sixth grade with us. Marvin Mutchler and Ervin Foor withdrew as we began the seventh grade. Miss Roller was our teacher.

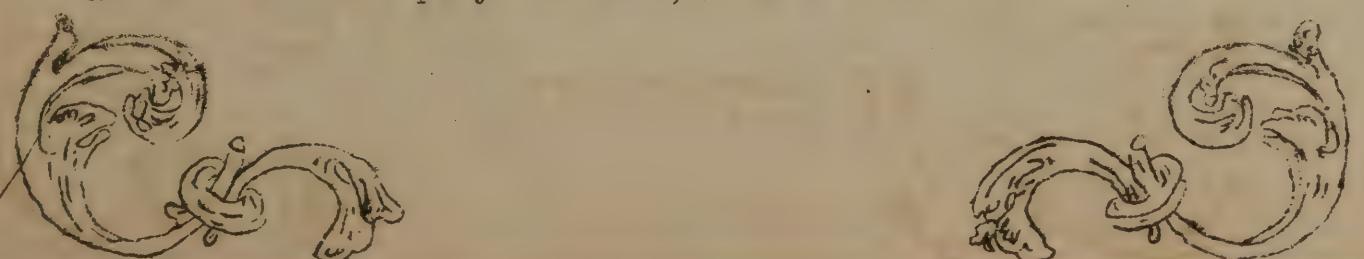

The next year Rachel Browning, Billy Thomas, Laurel Duty and Paul Dauster left us.

When we were Freshman, the faculty was as follows: Mr. Andrews, Superintendant; Miss Mercer, Principal; Mr. Swantuch, Miss Daugherty, Miss Hutchinson, and Miss Cole. Dawn Crawford and Richard Eckel entered our class this year; the former withdrew before the close of the year. On October 18, 1943 we were initiated with the whole high school attending.

Our Sophomore year was pretty quiet, except for our participation in the operetta, "Sailor Maids." Miss Cole left us at the beginning of the school year.

Eileen Delker joined us as we became Juniors. We gave our first play, "Her Emergency Family," On November 11, 1944. Later that year, we gave a Junior Dance. On March 23, 1945, with the proceeds of the play and the dance, we gave a banquet in honor of the seniors. This was the most important moment of our school life, for it was our first formal occasion. Another important event in that year was our participation in Baccalaureate and Commencement services.

In our Senior year we presented, with the help of Jack Ryder and Don Ziss the play entitled, "Alibis Limited."

The ACTIVITIES

BASKETBALL BANQUET

The annual basketball banquet was held on April 26, 1946, at the school. An excellent dinner was prepared by the Lutheran Aid Society, and sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association. After the dinner Mr. Loomis, as toastmaster, introduced Grayce Phillips who welcomed the group. The response was given by Norman Robert-son.

The toastmaster then introduced Mrs. Smith who gave remarks to the basketball team. Mr. Andrews, our coach, who reviewed the season and then presented the letters and awards to those who had earned them during the year.

The group then adjourned to the new auditorium to see a movie on basketball. The rest of the evening was spent by dancing. Everyone enjoyed their evening immensely.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Women's Club in Toledo on Saturday evening, May 4. The tables were decorated in the class colors of the seniors, and were centered with bouquets of yellow roses, the class flower of the senior class. Candles were burning at each end of the tables.

After the dinner was over, Pat Neal, president of the Junior class as toastmistress, welcomed the seniors and the faculty and then, called on Norman Robertson, senior president, to give the response. The Speech Class presented two radio plays. Following this Lenore Ziss read the class will and Mary Ellen Norvell gave the class history. The reading of the class prophecy was given by Grayce Phillips. The program ended with remarks by Mr. Andrews.

The rest of the evening was spent in taking pictures of both classes, playing games, and dancing.

Party For Mr. & Mrs. Smith

The high school students gave Mr. & Mrs. Smith a wedding shower last October. The Basketball Team put on a mock wedding. Jack Ryder was the Bride and Brice Thornton was the Groom. Don Ziss was the Preacher. The rest of the team acted as Brides-maids. Flower girls, Ushers, and a Ring Bearer. After the mock wedding, we danced, and played games.

The refreshments consisted of, Ice Cream and Cake and Pop. After refreshments were served, we presented Mr. & Mrs. Smith with a coffee table. The evening was a success with everyone presents.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Most of the people with girls in High School have heard of the G. A. A. and probably some of the basketball boy's parents have too, since the G. A. A. have sponsored several basketball banquets.

The G. A. A. is an organization of High School girls. It has meant a great deal to the girls of H. H. S. because it has provided many pleasant hours well spent. By well spent I mean in learning sportsmanship, happiness, and personality. It has helped in building all three. The girls have learned to take it in stride when they lost a game of sports. The different teams have worked and pulled together showing the excellent comradeship and the ability to co-operate. Each individual has helped her team make a good game.

At every meeting the G. A. A. has had very good attendance. The girls are glad to attend and have a grand time at every meeting. They usually compete in some kind of sport or dance after the business meeting is over.

The annual banquet was held at the Women's Club at Bowling Green, Ohio in September. All the girls were presented with a yellow rose corsage which has been the custom since the organization has been founded (in 1942). All the girl's present had a delightful time.

NEW BAND & ORCHESTRA

This is composed mostly of 5-6 and Jr. High boys and girls. The organization was started in October. Mr. C. H. Smith who instructs classes in the Toledo schools and has a studio at the J. W. Greene Co. gives lessons at the Haskins School each Friday morning. The following are taking lessons now.

Joan Asmus
Billie Brown
Bob Ballard
Jim Mcurdock
Francis Nagel

Tom Morlock
Harold Wheil
Ted Wenig
Mary Droessler
Carol Andrews

Other members of the Band & Orchestra are:

Pauline Mutchler
Doris Duncan
Doris Lee

Leota Limes
Charles Genson

The following girls and boys of the H. S. have been practicing as a small orchestra group:

Verna Gibbs
Phyllis Ryder
Grayce Phillips

Pat Neal
Marilyn Asmus
Morris Wenig

THE CHORUS

Second row: Charles Genson, Sam Genson, Jack Ryder, Garold Garrett, John Wenig, Mary Ellen Norvell, John Youngpeter, Walter Agler, and Miss Hutchinson.

Bottom row: Bernita Noward, Pat Neal, Pauline Myers, Nathalia Neal, Marilyn Asmus, Forrest Lee, Brice Thornton, and Harold Pope.

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

There are three Music Groups made up of Haskins High School Students this year. A Freshman-Sophomore chorus Group, Girls Ensemble Group, and a Mixed Ensemble Group. These groups furnish music for Assembly Programs and special entertainments of the school and community. All three groups expect to take part in the auditions, for Ensembles at Bowling Green April 13, and chorus at Bluffton April 27. We have attended these contests or auditions, as they are called now before and received high ratings on our work. Such activities raise the music standards of our school and in turn help the community.

Lenore Ziss and Phyllis Ryder took part in representing our school on the All Ohio Day Program at Cleveland, March 30, in connection with the Music Educators National Conference.

On All Ohio Day there was presented three Major Groups, representative of the music education in Ohio. The String Orchestra of 250, the Band of 500, and a mixed Chorus of 1600 pupils.

The girls attended the practice on Saturday morning which was held in the large Civic Auditorium of Cleveland.
